

Blossom FAQs

What is Blossom?

Blossom Benefit is a non-profit organization which seeks to inspire women to raise funds through its giving circles to address the needs of women and girls in the South Puget Sound and globally

What are giving circles?

Giving circles are groups of individuals who pool their philanthropic contributions, thereby achieving a greater impact.

What are Blossom's goals?

- 1. Pool our contributions to have a deep impact on the issues facing women and girls locally and internationally.*
- 2. Create supportive and inspiring circles where women can: gather, engage in their local community, learn about issues impacting women and girls and have fun.*

Why women and girls?

Research shows that investing in women and girls results in high yield outcomes. Improvements in the lives of women lead to improvements in the outcomes for families, communities and global communities.

How can I get involved?

- Start a Circle – Our guidebook will get you started! We can connect you with our circle liaison for additional guidance.*
- Join a Circle – we would love to connect you with other women interested in our mission!*

What is the commitment?

- Four meetings per year*
- Learn about issues that affect women and girls*
- Give intentionally at a level that is meaningful to you:
This could look like $5, $50, $500 or $5,000*
- Help us decide how to disburse our collected totals to organizations working to benefit women and girls locally and internationally.*

Is my contribution tax-deductible?

Yes, Blossom Benefit is a non-profit 501(c)3 registered in the State of Washington. Our non-profit id number is 90-0472324. Your donation may be tax deductible. Please consult your tax advisor.
